Please replace the paragraph beginning at page 7 line 1 with the following rewritten paragraph:

--Two seats 40, 41 may be secured onto desks or walls or other support members (not shown) with fastener members 80, such as screws 80 or magnets or the like, and each includes an extension 42 having a hole 43 formed therein for receiving a fastener 47 therein, and each includes a gear 44 attached to the respective extension 42 and having a number of teeth 45 formed or defined between depressions 46 thereof.--;

Please replace the three paragraphs beginning at page 7 line 15 with the following rewritten paragraphs:

--Each of the followers 50, 60 further includes a screw hole 55 formed therein, or formed in the respective gears 52, 62, for threading with the fasteners 47, and thus for securing the followers 50, 60 to the respective extensions 42 of the seats 40, 41. The gears 52, 62 of the followers 50, 60 may be engaged with the respective gears 44 of the extensions 42 of the seats 40, 41, to allow the followers 50, 60 and thus the primary frames 10, 20 to be rotated or adjusted relative to the seats 40, 41 to different angular positions.

The follower 50 includes an aperture 57 formed in the other side thereof, opposite to the gear 52, to selectively receive the pegs 36 of the respective auxiliary frames 30, and the other follower 60 may include a peg 67 extended from one side thereof, opposite to the gear 62, to selectively ~~engaging~~ engage into the apertures 37 of the lower beams 32 of the auxiliary frames 30, and thus for solidly securing one or more auxiliary frames 30 between the primary frames 10, 20 with the followers 50, 60.

In operation, as shown in FIG. 3, the primary frames 10, 20 may be selectively secured together by the engagements of the pegs 28 of the primary frame 20 into the apertures 18 of the beams 11, 12 of the primary frame 10, such that the primary frames 10, 20 may be selectively or optionally and solidly secured together. The primary frames 10, 20 may further be selectively and solidly secured together with the followers 50, 60 and/or the seats 40, 41.--.
